

TIDE 1977

MARSHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

MARSHFIELD MASSACHUSETTS Volume 1 Number 15

PREFACE

In the spring of '76 we began thinking about this yearbook. The students expressed the desire to design a book that was different from previous yearbooks. Everyone was anxious to give his or her time and energy into making this possible.

We decided to use an informal format with many candid photographs to capture the mood of the students and faculty of Marshfield High School. Members of the senior class created poems and phrases to reinforce the feeling behind these pictures.

The people who helped in the production of this yearbook were; Mr. Boczanowski, Patty Ionta. Bryan Palmar, Val Henderson, Donna Castro, Marcia McGowan, Julie Hawkins, Elsa McCann, Lisa Mcauliffe, Barbara Chaisson, Paul Kratzch, Phil Cooper, Sue McCarthy, Maureen Courtney, Lynda Rader, Bev Clifford, Bonnie MacKenzie, Sean Sullivan, Alan Bates, Lisa McGann, Betsy McEvoy, Teresa Grant, Karen McCluskey, Beth Shannon, Cynthia Henry, Terry Ducey, Robin Collins, Peggy Crofton, Valerie Bizzozero, Ray Ford, Delilah Malouf, Roy Anderson, John Forsyth, Carol McCann, Karie Anderson, Andrea Rydberg, Cathy Ames, Michelle Dowell, Marion Pratt, and Paula Brackett.

The combined effect of these people has resulted in Tide '77...a yearbook we feel is unique in it's representation of the people at M.H.S.

1977-DEDICATION

The class of 1977 dedicates this yearbook to Miss Rita Struzziery and Mr. Stephen Chiminello of the Math and Social Studies departments.

We feel they both teach effectively and at the same time allow a certain amount of freedom in the classroom.

Miss Struzziery and Mr. Chimenello have made many friendships while teaching at Marshfield High and have gained a great deal of respect from students and faculty alike.

The faces stream by, strange unknown. They slowly fall into place, each face bringing a smile, a wave, a friend.

Friends, now ... and later?

Times we found out, Times we didn't. Times we wanted to, Times we couldn't.

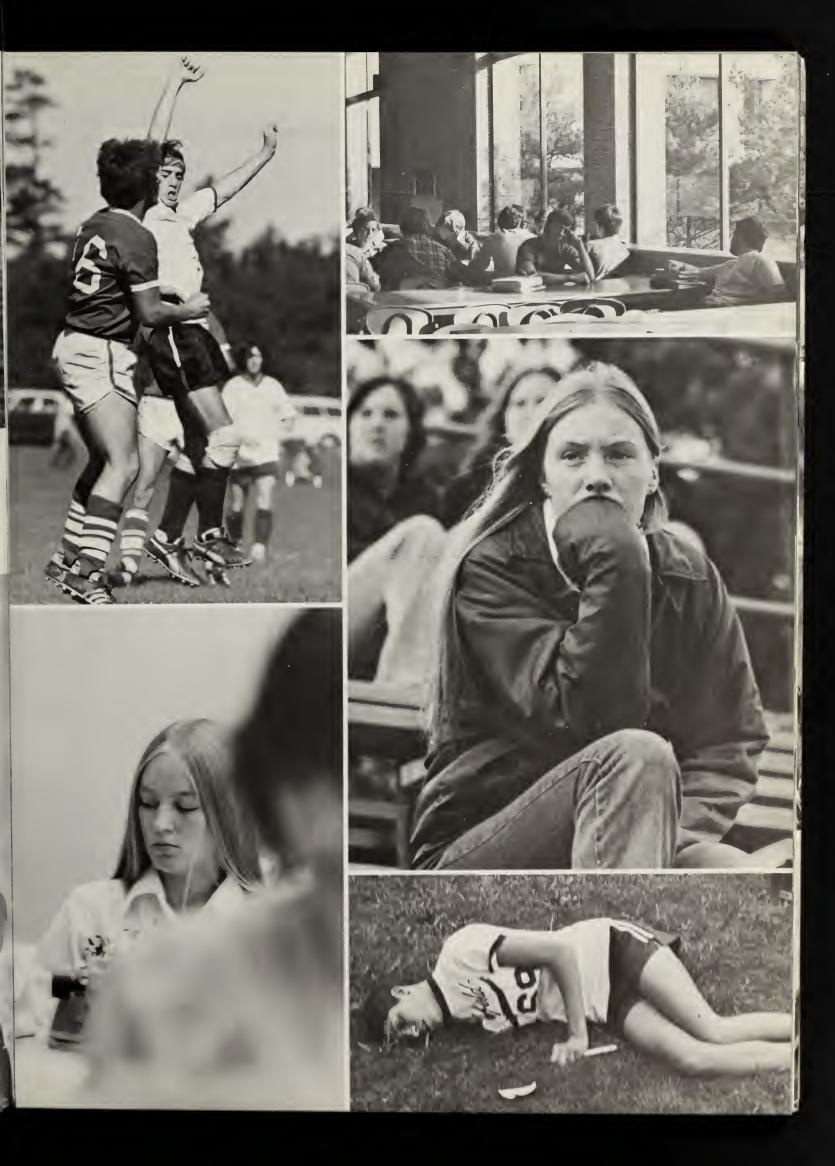

I used to believe in forever, I believed in love, and heaven and friends.

Now I believe in doubt, and I know that everything ends.

When man finds himself
He will know where to begin looking for his dreams.

As salty waves lap to the shore, Foam glides along the cold packed sand. As sea birds try the jesting wind, I sit and listen and learn.

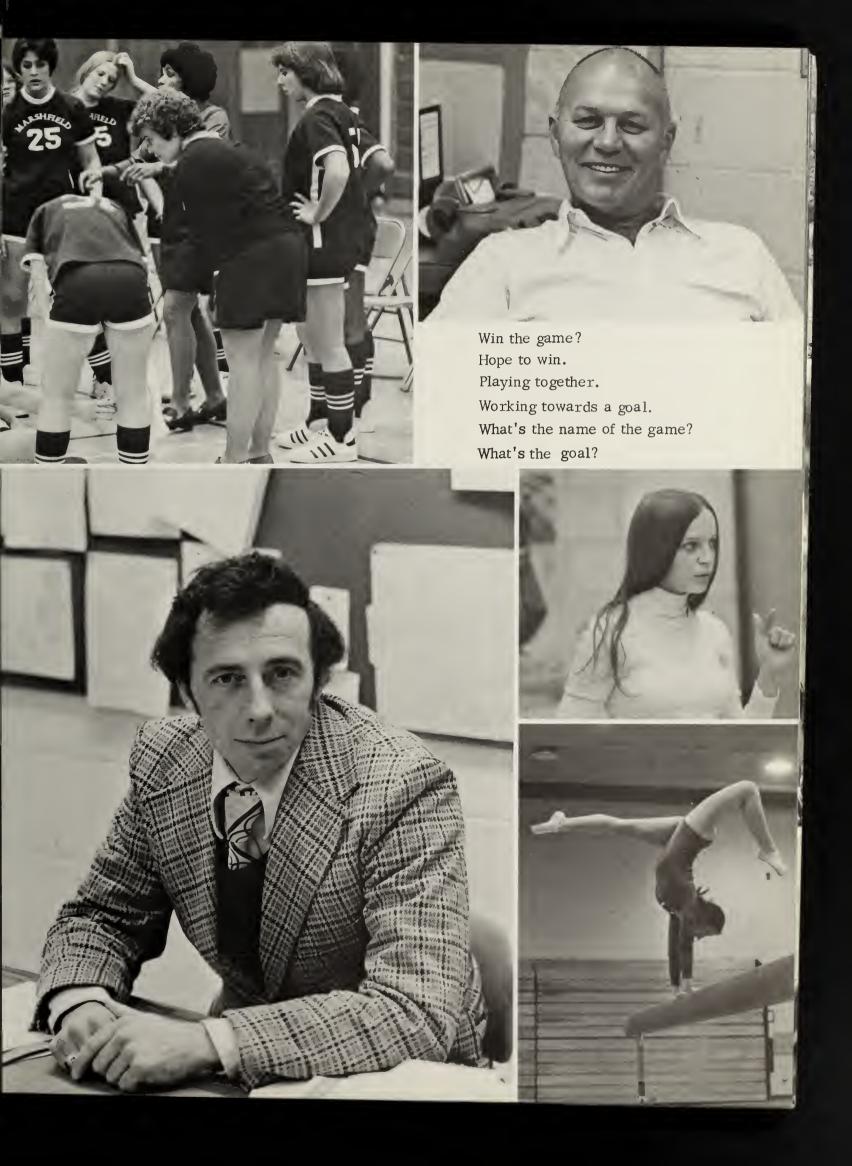

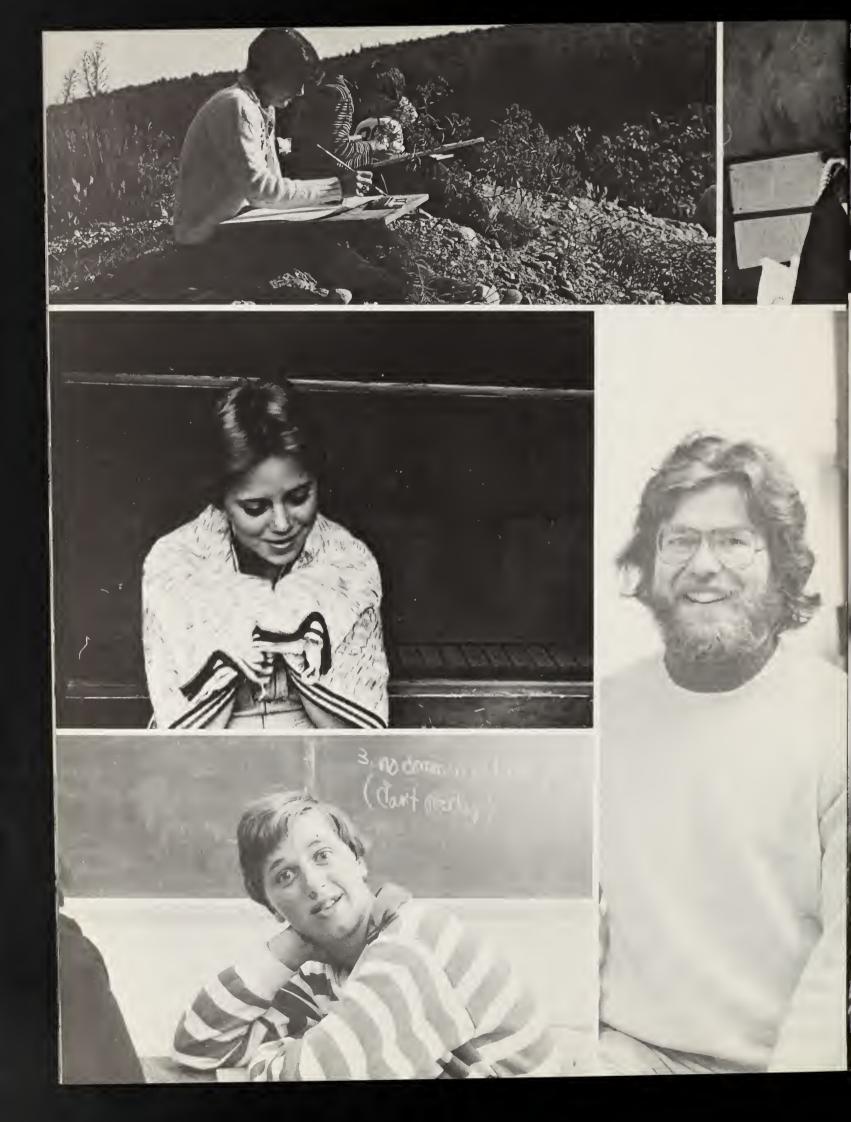

What about me?
What will happen now?
What about the future?

working, studying, foundation for the future. stopping to laugh, to hope, to reach out.

Everything changes and nothing will be the same; but the memories we have will always remain.

The winning goal,
The needed touchdown,
The perfect basket,
Smiles on our pride.

Here we work together, so we may better stand alone.

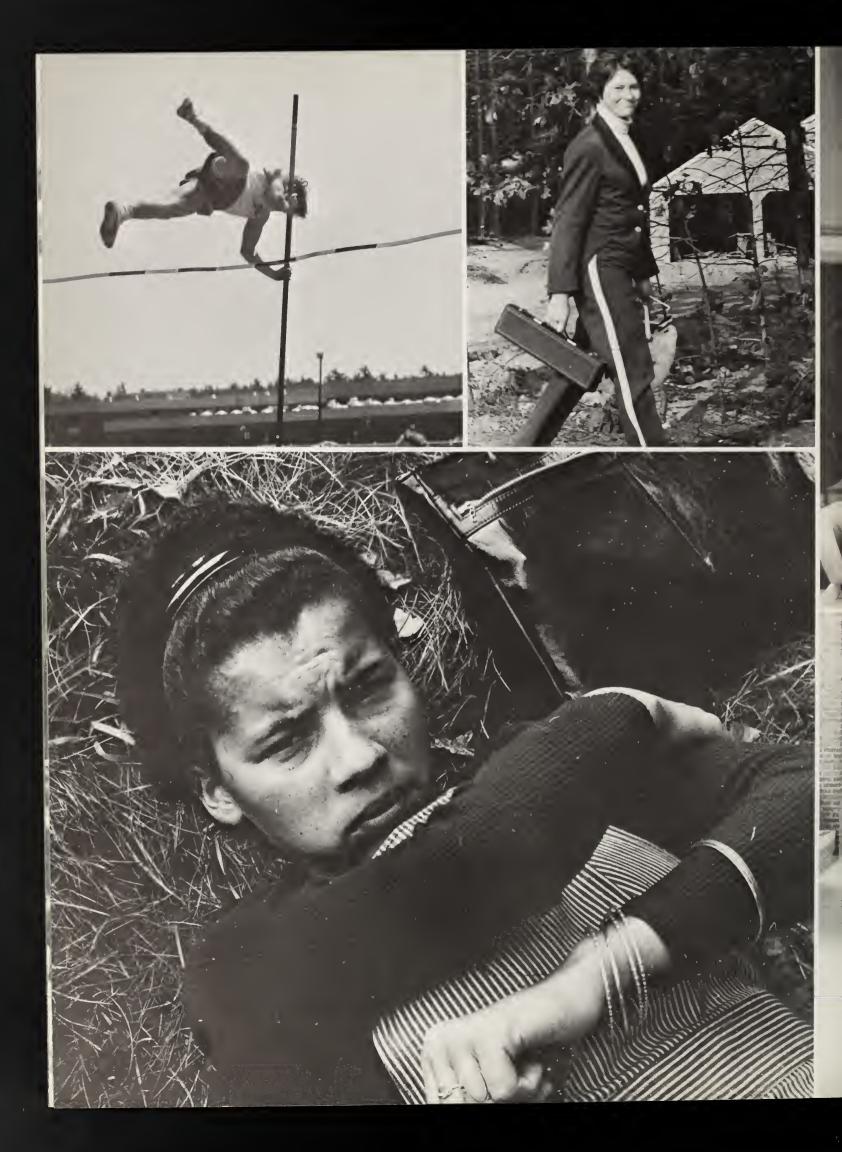

Leaving the life of happy memories hurts, but there will be happier memories in the future.

Well if you want it boys, get it here then.

As the years pass by us quickly, we learned many things about the life ahead. But the most important thing I learned was to be myself.

In order to create happiness, one must strive for it.

Dreams will come true for those who realize that if you live in past you wither and die.

For years I've walked the land, searching for myself.
I found you.
in you I found me.

Bring me to the hilltop
and tell me of the mountains.

Take me to the ocean and tell me of the sea.

Teach me all you've lived and learned and I'll tell you of my dream.

To be able to sacrifice What we are For what we could become.

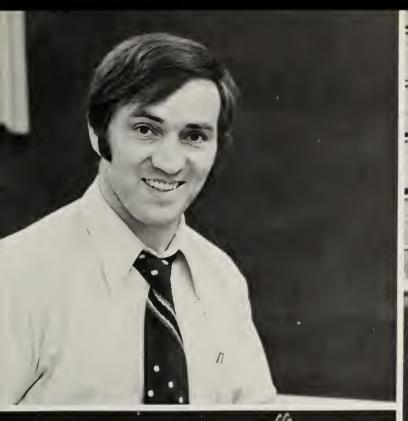

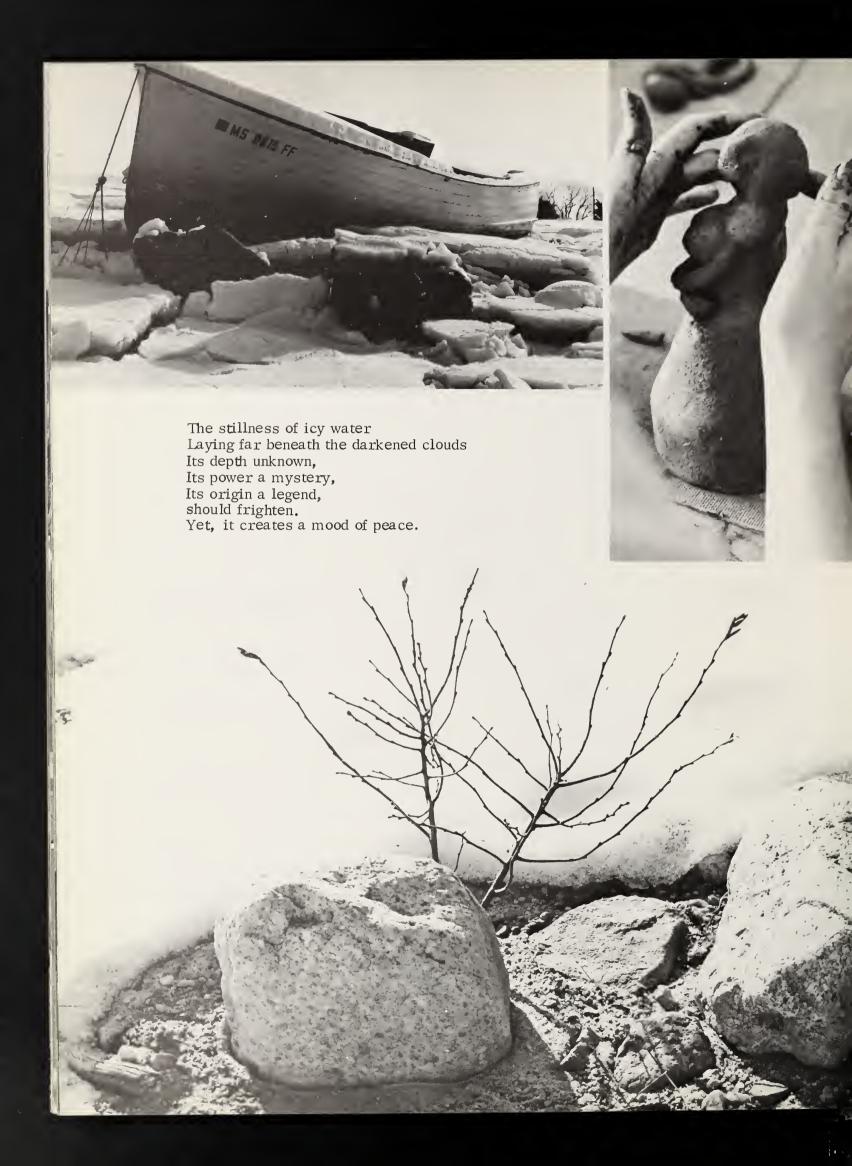

All that's left now is an album of photographs, a mind full of memories, a future full of opportunity.

The road to life is like a football field; at the end line, there is a goal to be reached.

Althrough all our high school years,
We've laughed many laughs,
cried many tears.
We've prepared ourselves for our lives
ahead,
Because high school is a beginning
Not an end.

I'll make you a deal like any other candidate.

Adolescence - Such a fixed pattern of life. It seems impossible to leave, But you must leave this life, To live.

Hello, my friend So good to see you again. I was so alone, All by myself I just couldn't make it.

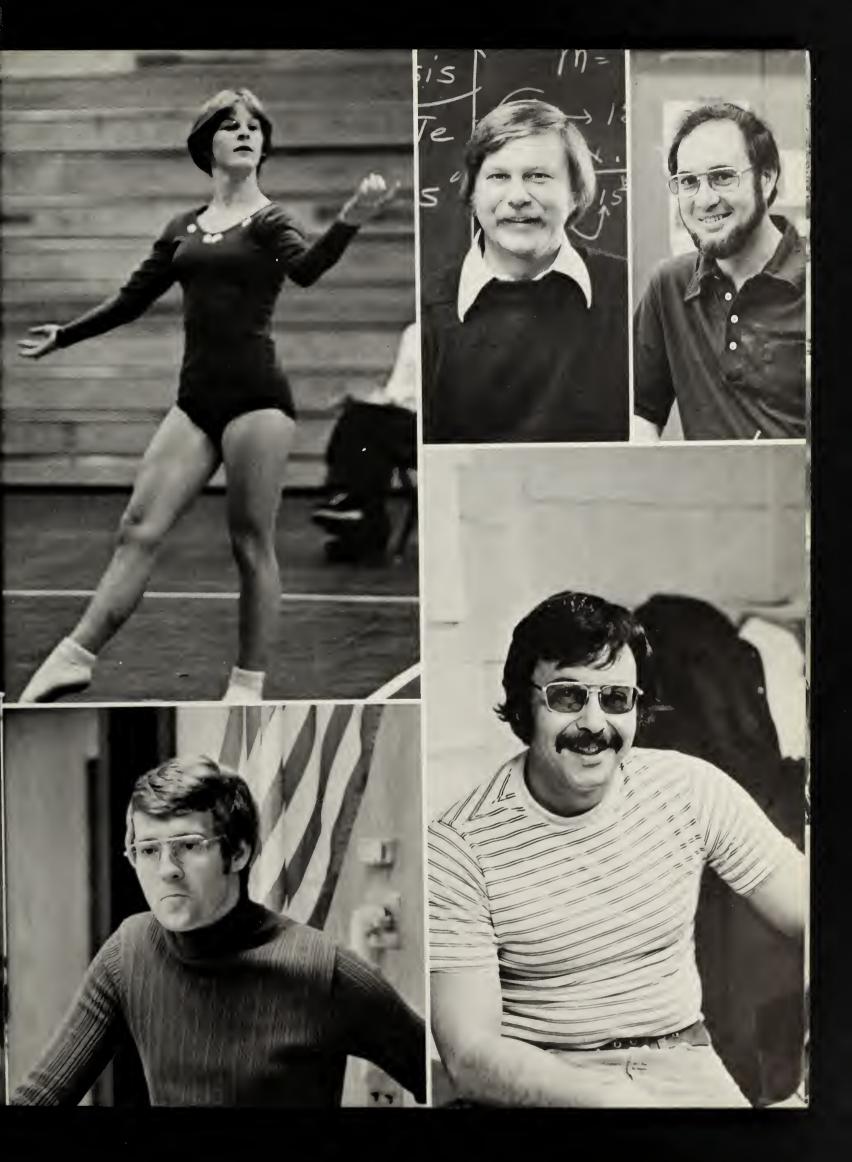

A flower Bursting into flame Hope of new life.

The pursuit of perfection Is a lonely quest. For those who attain it, End up less than the best.

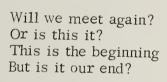

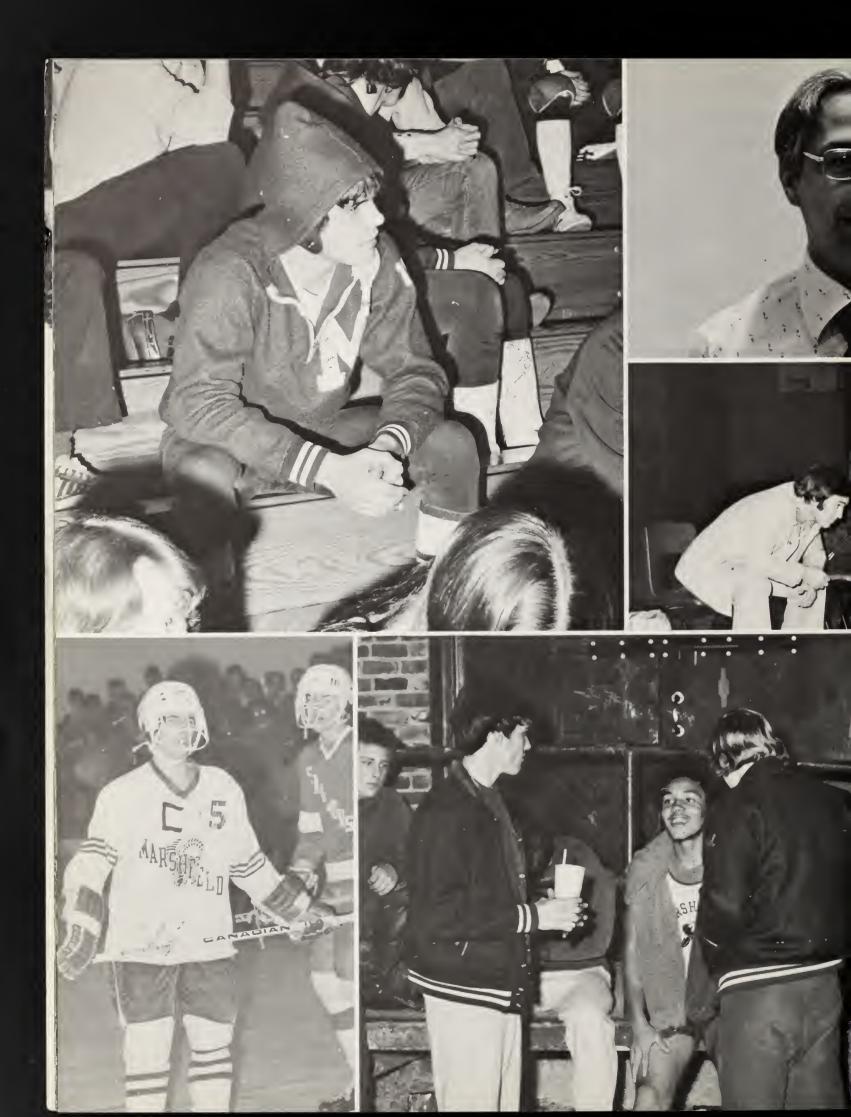

Together we walk by the waters edge and in our silence we have grown to better understand each other.

'Twas once said A face could launch A thousand ships at once.

She did it
Many years ago,
So what am I, a dunce?

I couldn't do it For a mint No matter how I try.

And I owe my talent And all my smarts To good ol' MARSHFIELD HIGH!!

Finally the end, yet only the beginning.

We live so close to the truth, we can't recognize it.

Nothing is constant except change.

No love no friendship can ever go by without affecting us forever.

A time to let go,
But the want to stay.
A time for memories,
Yet the anxious future awaits.
